FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HAVE A SUNDAE FOR FAMILY LITERACY

St. Lucie County – What could be better than a sundae on a Sunday? The Lifelong Literacy Coalition will host the 4th Annual Sundaes in the Park event at Whispering Pines Park on Sunday, January 31, 2010 from 1pm – 3pm. The event will be filled with activities for kids relating to literacy, such as making their own bookmarks and sock puppets.

Local dignitaries including School Board Member Kathryn Hensley, have volunteered their time to read stories to groups of kids throughout the day. “I volunteer for this event each year,” she said, “It really lets you see that a love of reading is being fostered in our kids.”

Everyone who attends will receive a free ice cream sundae courtesy of Wal-Mart Distribution Center, who has been a sponsor of this even for the past three years. In addition, every child who attends will take home a book of their choice thanks to donations by Keiser University, the Early Learning Coalition and Children's Services Council of St. Lucie County.

For more information call Ashley Mock, Chair of the Lifelong Literacy Coalition at 772-408-1106.
